Integrated Test	Unit Test	Description	Steps	Test Inputs	Output	Result
Customer	Browse products	The user can visit the products page to see every product in stock	1) Go to home page 2) Go to products page from home	"search" and "filter" buttons to find products easier	All filtered and search products	Test was successful
Home	Goes to Home page	When user clicks on the logo of the website, they will be redirected to the home page	1) click on the orange tech logo 2) The program sends the user to top of home page	"Orange tech" button that is there as the logo	Home page	Test was successful
Cart	Add to cart	User can add a product they like to the cart	1) Sign into account 2) click button to add to cart	"Add to cart" button	The product gets added to cart for user to purchase	Test was Successful
Checkout	Purchase products	User can purchase products that were added to cart	1) The user can checkout their purchase 2) asks for what payment type	"checkout" button takes user to the checkout and payment options page	Purchase receipt	Test was successful
Account	SignIn/SignUp	User can create an account on the website to save their info	1) Click signin 2) If user does not have account, then click sign up 3) sign up following the form	The "signin" button takes user to sign in page and "sign up" button takes user to sign up page	User account is created/user gets signed in	Test was successful Authorize Order	Save order in db	The order is saved in db for when needed. E.g	1) The purchase is saved in the db	The input is the order information	There is no output because it is	Test was successful

		customer service	2) the receipt is sent to user		saved in the db Delivery	Deliver product to user	The product is packaged and sent out to the user via delivery option chosen	1) The product is packaged 2) the package is sent to delivery company	The input is the delivery mailing info	the sticker to put on package with mailing information	Test was successful
Bank	Payment approval	The user must choose a payment option and pay for the product before it gets sent out	1) When user clicks checkout, they are prompted to choose payment option 2) the website then checks the validity of the payment and processes the package	The input is the payment option (E.g., credit, debit, crypto, etc.)	If the payment option chosen was successfully connected or not	Test was successful